PASTOR'S PAGE

Dear Friends in Christ,

Last weekend, we welcomed Father Joseph Matteucig, SX to our parish communities. He spoke to us about his mission experience in China. I want to thank Father Joseph for his time with us, and for answering the call to be a missionary.

I thank all of you at Saint Joseph and Saint Patrick for welcoming Father Joseph! Our communities have a gift of hospitality.

Father Joseph invited us to be co-missionaries with him and the Xaverian Missionaries who reach out to many countries and serve God's people. Two particular ways that we can do this is by keeping the Xaverian Missionaries in our prayers. Another way we can participate is by a financial donation. If you would like to support the Xaverian Missionaries you can still do so by sending a check to Saint Joseph or Saint Patrick and in the memo line put Mission Appeal for the Xaverian Missionaries July 22-23.

Again, thank you for your hospitality and generosity to Father Joseph. May the Lord bless us and watch over us as we continue to grow in our relationship with Jesus and His Church.

More information about the mission visit www.xaverianmissionaries.org or <http://xaverianmissionaries.org/missionblog>

Peace in Christ,
Father Scott
