PASTOR'S LETTER

Recently a Bishop went through the metal detector at the airport returning home after a meeting. He paused to wait for his bag which was going through the X-ray screening device. The security attendant looked at the screen and then looked up and said, "I see your cross in the bag. Father, it makes me feel a little guilty. I don't get to Mass, and I should." The Bishop responded, "You really ought to try. You should be at Mass. I am sure you would feel a lot better." To which she replied, "I know, but I work Sundays." At that point, the couple directly behind me who had just gone through the metal detector and were waiting for their bag to be screened said to the attendant, "Why don't you try Saturday night?" The agent who initiated this conversation said, "Maybe I should." By that time, the Bishop had his shoes back on and was gathering up his bag. The security agent called out, "Hey Father, I will. I'll try next Saturday!" We all know people who just drifted away or perhaps felt that they had a good reason not to be at Mass. Whatever their situation, maybe it's time for us to invite them home.

God wants our friendship and offers us His. So strong is God's love for us that He chose to come among us, to be with us and never to leave us. The Eternal Son of God, chose to take on human flesh, our human nature, and to become one of us. Lent is about why He chose to do this: to show the incredible depth of God's love for each of us, a love so deep that it would bring Christ to the cross and us to the foot of the cross.

What a fruitful work it would be during this Lenten season to invite back someone who may have drifted away from the faith. The message is simple: "If you have been away, please come back. You are an important part of our family, and we miss you."

Have a good week and God bless.

Fr. Varghese
