DID YOU KNOW? – A disastrous fire on October 18, 1919, destroyed St. Joseph Church. The blaze caused an estimated $60,000 in damage, only a fraction of which was covered by insurance. A month later $4,000 was appropriated to make repairs to the basement, which was converted into a chapel where services were conducted for a number of years.

On February 22, 1948, the church was once again swept by fire, despite the efforts of the volunteer firemen. In the interim period, before repairs were made, the church gratefully accepted the Burrillville School Committee’s invitation to use the Pascoag Grammar School’s auditorium for Mass and other services. Repairs were completed, and on March 20, 1949, the church was blessed by His Excellency Bishop Russell J. McVinney.
